ON BIG BILLS.*Committees in Congress Face
Important Labor.*Currency and Navy Measures of Great Interest.*Democrats not Disposed to Oppose Legislation.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—In Congress the committee rooms rather than the floor of the Senate and the House are now the centers of interest and the action is being taken in the quiet of the committee rooms rather than in the public hearing of the floor.

The two subjects which are attracting attention to the exclusion of almost everything else are the financial bill and the navy personnel bill, the former by Senator Aldrich and the latter by Senator Hale.

The Senate Committee on Finance will take up the Aldrich bill at its sitting next Tuesday. It is not believed the Democrats will make any determined opposition to the bill in committee, and the indications are that it will be given a place on the Senate calendar sooner than even the Republican advocates of the measure expected.

Even though the Democrats themselves should favor the passage of the measure, they would not permit the session to go by without discussing the financial situation, and the Aldrich bill will afford them the best opportunity for this.

The Democrats will take advantage of every chance to make campaign material out of the situation, but in the end they will not stand in the way of any legislation as the Republican leaders may agree upon.

Senator Hale's bill will receive its first action at the hands of the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs during the present week, but it will probably be some time before the measure can be reported to the Senate. There is little doubt that hearings will be ordered. It will be quite impossible to avoid touching upon the retirement of Admiral Brown, and the subject is expected to come up in the course of the discussion.

The general question of the reorganization of the navy is itself very important, but the addition of the Brown incident has aroused much more general interest in the proposed legislation.

Chairman Tawney of the House Committee on Appropriations, will be in his seat Monday morning, and the committee will immediately review the consideration of the appropriation bill.

The bill providing for the vacation of the panel laws holds the right of way in both houses. It has been under consideration in the House for two or three days, and it was given the position of unfinished business on the Senate calendar before the Senate adjourned last Thursday.

The Senate will meet again on Thursday, but the House will most likely continue its work until the end of the week.

in Scathing Letter Addressed to President and Other Officials, Defends Accused Men and Judge Who Quashed Indictments.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—In a personal letter which he has addressed to the President and Vice-President, Speaker Cannon and all members of Congress, the justices of the Supreme Court, members of the President's Cabinet, and the Washington newspaper correspondents, George W. Cook, Republican Congressman-at-large from Colorado, severely arraigns the administration for its course in prosecuting alleged infractions of the public-land laws in Colorado.

Congressman Cook insists that great injustice has been done to a number of Colorado's most honorable, upright and law-abiding business men in that they have been unnecessarily branded as criminals through overzealousness of the government in ordering indictments without securing proper evidence. He cites the recent decisions of Federal Judge Robert E. Lewis at Denver, in which he quashed indictments against some thirty citizens, to show that government prosecutors were overzealous in their efforts to punish land frauds. Congressman Cook's letter follows:

"My Dear Sir: I most earnestly protest against the continuing high-handed, pernicious political persecution made by certain department bureaus of the government in this city, branding many of our most honorable, upright and law-abiding business men of Colorado as criminals.

"CALLS THEM INNOCENT.
"Their only information and authority for such malicious statements are reports made to them by non-resident special agents and prosecutors sent to Colorado, whose accusations against innocent men are for the sole purpose of securing personal promotion in Washington, and the opportunity for the government bureaus here to disseminate among the press throughout the country misrepresentation as to timber land and coal thieves that do not exist in Colorado.

"Judge Robert E. Lewis of the United States District Court, Denver, on December 24, 25 and 26, quashed all of the indictments against some thirty of our most worthy and reputable citizens (several of whom have been engaged actively in business in Colorado for thirty years) on the ground that the government had absolutely failed to furnish any evidence whatever against these men—a most stinging and severe rebuke by Judge Lewis of the United States District Court (an appointee of the present administration).

"Active preparation was made by certain high officials in Washington for the prosecution of these cases. They condemn honorable men of unquestioned integrity before they have found guilty of any violation of the law, or even given an opportunity of defense.

PEOPLE SATISFIED.

"Judge Lewis's decision gives universal satisfaction to all of our people in Colorado regardless of their political affiliations and is endorsed by our press. In fact every newspaper in the State most heartily commends Judge Lewis's action.

"The truth has been vindicated. In this connection I beg to call attention to the editorial below, Denver Republican, December 24, 1934; also editorial of December 25, 1934, written by ex-Senator T. M. Patterson, owner and editor of the Rocky Mountain News, Denver.

"Here follow editorial extracts from the Denver Republican and the Rocky Mountain News, both upholding Judge Lewis in his decision. Congressman Cook then continues:

"Referring to the action taken at the last Cabinet meeting of the year, December 31, as to the Colorado cases, the President criticized the Judiciary and authorized the Attorney-General as follows:

"The government will use every means in its power to bring about in the highest court the disapproval of the decision rendered in Colorado by Judge Lewis."

"Our citizens are willing and ready to meet the issue raised by the impulsive administration, but as to the purposes on the part of the latter I am not convinced, unless it is to confuse by the 'timid' and therefore the country will be saved—from the bureaucratic point of view.

"Our citizens in Colorado have with patience submitted to these persecutions for alleged offenses and every fair-minded citizen who has in commendation of the fact that we have in our beloved country true judges who have the courage of their convictions and believe in justice to every citizen and a real 'square deal' emphasized.

"In conclusion I beg to say I assume the personal responsibility for statements herein made."

PROTECTING PUBLIC LANDS.Commissioner Ballinger Tells in Annual Report What His Department Has Accomplished.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Commissioner Ballinger of the General Land Office has completed his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior for submission to Congress.

He asks an appropriation of $500,000 to carry on the field work of his bureau in the protection of the public lands, an increase of $250,000 over the current appropriation.

During the fiscal years 1934-35 there were entered of record for investigation 24,459 cases of all kinds; of these the agent investigated and disposed of 12,124 cases, and 12,335 cases remained for examination July 1, 1935. Since then the number of cases has largely increased.

There were 254 land entries relinquished after the case was in the hands of the special agent for investigation; 253 entries were canceled after hearings were had upon special agents' charges; 187 unlawful incursions of public lands were removed, restoring 1,540,128 acres to the open range. There were twenty-seven convictions with the cases pending.

The total of monies recovered by the government on all special agents' cases was $38,351, and 2,571,124 acres of land were either freed from fraudulent claims of title or released from unlawful inclosure and occupancy.

The commissioner states that the present force of agents is only sufficient to handle about one-half of the work in the field.

DEEDS FOREST TO NATION.Tract of Redwoods, 295 Acres in Extent on Mt. Tamalpais, Will Be Returned to the Nation.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) William Kent of Chicago, now at Kentfield, Cal., has just deeded to the United States government a tract of land of 295 acres of natural redwood forest on the southern slope of Mount Tamalpais, about six miles from San Francisco. The land was deeded to the government with the approval of Forester Gifford Pinchot, chief of the United States Forest Service.

It is the intention to name the national forest "Muir Woods" after John Muir, the noted naturalist. The plants of redwood forest now will be given permanent protection by virtue of the act of June 8, 1906, which provides that objects of scientific interest may be declared national monuments and such action is deemed necessary for their preservation and protection.

This 295-acre tract will be a pleasure ground as well as a place for scientific study for the people of the whole country.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

TACOMA (Wash.) Jan. 12.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Because she permitted her ward, Miss Lillian Bretton, to wed William Hargrave after a hurried courtship, before first informing her employer, Miss Annie Woolley, nurse from the royal infirmary of Hull, England, is out of work. She is now seeking money to go back to England to warm up the atmosphere surrounding her late employer.

Miss Bretton is a daughter of an English aristocrat. Miss Woolley has a document in her possession which declares, under the signature of Miss Bretton's father, that the nurse has been engaged to take Miss Bretton abroad for marrying purposes. First, the bridegroom must have money and must be an American. He must have good standing. And last of all, sanction to the marriage must come from the father back in Hull.

For carrying out these plans Miss Woolley is to receive a monthly salary and a return ticket to Hull. Miss Bretton's success as matchmaker was not up to her standards as a chaperone. Instead of wedding an American, the courtship took place on a train from New York to Spokane and Miss Bretton became the bride of Mr. Hargrave, of English birth. A cable to Mr. Bretton in England did not bring forth joy. In terse language he notified Miss Woolley of her discharge.

Miss Woolley has retained counsel at Walla Walla. She is after back pay and declares that if the little blind god of love, with his conventional bow and darts, got in his deadly work she could not help it.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—It has been determined by the Interstate Commerce Commission that the statement of rates and fares shall be affirmative and definite.

Many tariffs on file prior to May 1, 1935, contain long and short haul clauses, maximum rules, alternative rates or fare provisions or other rules, which make the application of the rates or fares uncertain, more particularly as to intermediate stations not specified in the tariff; and some such rules, through misunderstanding, have been included in tariffs issued since May 1, 1935.

In a special tariff circular report, just issued, the following statement of the attitude of the first division is made:

"The commission desires and requires that as the earliest practicable date all such features of the tariffs, as are above referred to, shall be eliminated from tariffs and discontinued either by supplement or by revision of the tariffs, and the commission desires the volume of work in checking out rates and fares and preparation of tariffs that is involved in the elimination of such features, as an aid in simplification and directness in providing and applying lawful tariffs charges.

TROOPS TO LEAVE.
strike began, November 27 last, the report draws this conclusion:

"The action of the mine operators in the belief that they had determined upon a reduction in wages and the refusal of employment to members of the Western Federation of Miners, but that they feared to take this course of action unless they had the protection of Federal troops, and that they accordingly laid a plan to secure such troops and then put their programme into effect."

When the troops arrived the mine operators issued a statement in which they indicated a reduction in miners' wages from $5 to $4 a day, also their intention not to employ miners who belonged to the union. The report adds:

"While this cut in wages and refusal to employ members of the Western Federation of Miners was not announced until after the arrival of the troops, every indication confirms the belief that such action was in contemplation before the arrival of the troops, and that the troops were sent to the mines as part of the general plan of the mine operators to establish their independence of the union, and that the coming of the troops was expected and urged by them to make such a plan feasible."

Conditions at Goldfield, the report asserts, did not justify calling for the troops. The single case of the unlawful use of dynamite, which failed to accomplish any damage, was surrounded by such circumstances that the report says, as to raise a reasonable doubt as to the genuineness of the charge that members of the union were responsible. The great bulk of the testimony of the operators tended to show, according to the report, not the existence of past or present disorder, but the possibility of future disturbances, should the troops be withdrawn.

UNION IS BLAMED.

This view was held by many men of almost all classes, but was based on the changed conditions since the troops had arrived, namely, the declaration of the operators reducing wages and refusing to employ union men. As to the refusal of the operators to employ union men, the report sets forth a statement of the State prohibiting such discrimination. The commission expresses itself as satisfied that throughout the miners' union there are not over a few hundred men of dangerous type. The report adds:

"By permitting their organization to be managed and controlled by men of violent tendencies, the union as a body has thus laid itself open to the reproach of being a vicious organization. The view of the report is that the belief there is considerable danger that serious disorders will be attempted if the troops be withdrawn, and the mine operators insist on carrying out their publicly announced policy. But if a handful of men have controlled the Goldfield Miners' Union and committed the organization to indefensible policies and practices, it is no reason why the county of Esmeralda and the State of Nevada should tamely submit to the domination of this same group and should not assert their authority and power and enforce respect for law and order without support of Federal troops."

CARSON CITY, Jan. 12.—Many members of the State Legislature, which has been called by Gov. Sparks to meet in special session next Tuesday for the purpose of providing means to preserve order at Goldfield, have already arrived. Gov. Sparks stated today that he hoped that the Legislature would finish its business in two weeks.

There will be a caucus of the members tomorrow on organization. It is believed the old attaches will occupy the positions held at the session of last winter.

Leut. Gov. Dickinson said today that he is in favor of any legislation that will promote the interests of the State. As he has been opposing Gov. Sparks' policies this statement has produced a better feeling.

Congressman Bartlett, who is in accord with Gov. Sparks, has arrived and will remain throughout the session.

The Goldfield miners' union and the Mine Owners' Association will both be represented by prominent members.

Gov. Sparks was unwilling tonight to outline his message to the Legislature, saying that he did not care to discuss it in advance of its transmission to the Legislature Tuesday.

A lively session is looked for, as there are many radical labor sympathizers among the members, who will fight any measure authorizing the organization of State militia or constabulary, similar to the Pennsylvania constabulary force. It is said by those working for a militia or constabulary force that if the plan is blocked the Legislature will be asked to memorialize Congress to enact a law establishing a permanent military garrison in Nevada.

TIMES AGAINST THE FIELD.

For the month of December, 1907, The Times printed 2076 inches of display, Resort, Hotel and Cafe advertising.

The five other dailies combined printed 740 inches. The Times alone printing nearly three times as much as the aggregate of the five other papers.

This popular class of advertising has been appearing in The Times every day for many years, with a steady increase from year to year.

Other daily newspapers have tried various schemes in a vain effort to secure a few inches of this class of advertising, but shrewd hotel men choose to place their business where they are sure of returns.

The following figures tell the story: RESORT, HOTEL AND RESTAURANT ADVERTISING. For the month of December, 1907. (Stated in inches.)

the programme, and offered to assist him. Brenta took a sack filled with poker chips to the appointed place to-night, and then he and Policeman Rocca hid themselves near by.

At the appointed time a man appeared to secure the money, and he was promptly taken into custody by the officer. He proved to be John Bona, an Italian, who claims to have come here from New York City, November 1. He says that he acted alone in the matter, although he alluded to "the society" in the letter. He says he adopted this method of securing money because it seemed easy to him. He is being held, and an investigation of his record will be made by the police.

MAY STARVE TO DEATH.

Daughter of Ambrose Bierce Snowbound in Mountains Near Index, Cal.

RENO (Nev.) Jan. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Harry Cowden, daughter of Ambrose Bierce, who was married in Carson City a few months ago, shortly after getting a divorce from Gerald Ballard of Brooklyn, has been promoting mining propositions in the Sierras with her new husband, and on the last venture into the mountains she was snowed in near Index, Cal.

Mrs. Cowden is alone in a little cabin, with barely enough food to last her until her husband, who passed through Gardnerville yesterday, arrives with help.

The Cowdens did not expect the storm to be so severe when they left their home in Carson to develop the gold claims last week. But continuous storms left them snowbound. The woman was left alone while he departed on snowshoes for aid. Strong hibernians will accompany Cowden on his return tomorrow with food.

ROBBERS HAVE GALLERY.

Several Frightened Residents of Reno Witness Creaking of Safe in Factory.

RENO (Nev.) Jan. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frightened from their beds by an explosion of dynamite used by four men to wreck the entrance to the Nevada Engineering Works here, early this morning, William Koenig, his two daughters, and the McCarthy family ran from their homes and stood in surprise in the road, where they saw robbers blow up the safe with a second charge of powder and procure $1000. The onlookers were too scared to give the alarm until after the robbers had departed.

The Koenig girls returned from a dance at an early hour and saw the four thugs passing their house, and although the opportunity to summon assistance was offered.

The robbers are supposed to be the same ones who have held up several houses here recently and escaped.

Governor of Nebraska Postpones Presentation of Silver Service to Battleship Nebraska.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The body of Mrs. Beth Pomeroy, wife of C. H. Pomeroy, a prominent lawyer and capitalist, was found at 11 o'clock this morning in Lake Washington, a few feet from where a boat which had been used to take her last night, had left the trail. The drowning of Mrs. Pomeroy, which is believed to have been accidental, has thrown a gloom over the aristocratic household of the city.

Mrs. Pomeroy left her husband Friday night with a laughing cry to his request that she put on an extra wrap. She was bound for a neighboring houseboat where an entertainment was in progress. The husband was at the entrance, but did not see his wife, although he says he thought he heard her voice, and he thought inquiries as to her absence were intended as a joke.

It was not until next day that a search was made, a boat found being the one in which she was last seen. He thought his wife had gone to a sanatorium near by, as she had frequently done before. The Pomeroy family lived in San Francisco.

BOY SHOT IN BACK.

Hotel Man Arrested for Shooting—He Calls It Accident—Previous Threat Is Charged.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 12.—Frank Hogan, aged 13, was shot in the back tonight by Julius Herliker, proprietor of the Excelsior House, on the Mission street. The boy was not dangerously wounded, and Herliker, after being booked at the Central Station, was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

He claimed that a number of boys had been bothering him during the afternoon, while a party was in progress in the park of the hotel. He says he tried to frighten the boys away by shooting into the air, but one bullet went wide, and hit the boy.

The boy, after his wound was dressed at the Central Emergency Hospital, was taken to his home. He says Herliker came to the door and threatened to "kill the boy's father" and when they ran, shot him in the back.

Divorced Soon After Marriage—Aged Couple Meet by Accident—On Second Marriage.

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) Jan. 12.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Meeting accidentally after being divorced for almost forty years, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Ackley of Minneapolis have found that the fire of their early romance still burns and they are now enjoying a second honeymoon.

They were married in 1871. After a year of married life they were divorced. Ackley went to New York. Mrs. Ackley went to Chicago where she earned her living by teaching music. All the while they were longing for each other, but each was too proud to make the first advance.

She sought one of the department stores where there was pen and paper, and in a note pleaded for a meeting and set the place and hour. Exactly at the hour Ackley appeared and confessions followed which swept away clouds that had made forty years of their lives a dreary waste. The aged lovers have gone to New York for their second honeymoon.

HERE TO HEAR HARBOR FACTS.

Arrival of a Distinguished Engineer Officer.

Plans for Presenting Case at San Pedro Tomorrow.

Great Importance Attached to the Visit.

Col. D. W. Lockwood, Corps of Engineers, U.S.A., and chairman of the National Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, who with Lieut.-Col. S. S. Leach, is to preside at the harbor hearing at San Pedro, tomorrow, arrived in the city last night on the Golden State Limited. He was accompanied by Capt. A. H. Weber of the Engineering Corps, but Lieut.-Col. Leach stopped over a day in El Paso to visit friends.

Capt. A. H. Friss, U.S.A., district engineer in charge of the harbor work at San Pedro, and the two officers at the Alexandria and arranged for today's programme.

RECALLS OLD DAYS. "The last time I was in Los Angeles, it was a small city," remarked Col. Lockwood, looking about him with evident approval. "I was a guest at the old El Comodoro in 1871. I see you have changed some since then. I am very fatigued tonight, but tomorrow I expect to meet some of your citizens and hope to visit a few of my old friends."

Col. Lockwood declared it was manifestly impossible for him to discuss any of the phases of the question to be brought before the committee.

Dr. Clarence E. Edwards of the California Promotion Committee arrived here from San Francisco, yesterday, to meet the engineers and to accompany them north, where other hearings will be held.

Capt. Friss stated that he would present the projects now begun or in contemplation to the committee and that it rested upon its recommendation whether Congress would vote to appropriate any more money for the harbor improvement.

GAR-CLOSING PROJECT. Among the projects to be presented to the engineers is the plan to close the gap of 1800 feet that now separates the outer harbor breakwater from the shore end. Another project is to extend the inner harbor to its full depth, two main basins, one west and one east of the railway tracks.

"Col. Lockwood will probably visit the government engineer's office this morning," said Capt. Friss. "I shall try to arrange to have him meet President George H. W. Pierce, the chairman of the Harbor Committee. The time is of course very limited, as the engineers must leave here Tuesday night in order to reach Monterey Wednesday, where an examination of conditions existing there will be made."

"I regard the coming hearing as very important for the residents of this section of the state. San Pedro is destined to be a great port and we are trying to lay the foundations for a splendid harbor where the commerce of the world may find anchorage."

PLANS FOR THE DAY. The distinguished officers who are to conduct the hearing will be met tomorrow morning by the members of the Chamber of Commerce. Harbor fact sheets and escorted to the Pacific Electric station. A special car will leave at 8 o'clock for Long Beach and a number of prominent railroad officials, and representatives of the commercial bodies will be invited guests. At the beach city, launches will be used to transport the party to San Pedro, by way of Long Beach harbor, the sloughs and Wilmington. Other boats will take the engineers to the government pier, where Luncheon will be served at the South Coast Yacht Club and the hearing will take place at the city hall.

Following the hearing, the engineers will return to this city, where they will take an evening train for the north.

Dr. Edwards of the California Promotion Committee in speaking of the visit of the engineers said: "I consider that the coming of these gentlemen is an incident of the greatest importance to this state. It is of much greater significance than appears on the surface. The resident engineers have reported on various projects which require governmental attention and these reports are of such a nature as to attract the attention of the department."

CALL FOR MUCH MONEY. "They call for the expenditure of a great amount of money—a great indeed, that it was, as I understand it, the disposition of the department to reject the reports. When word to this effect reached this state, the various committees took the matter up through the Congressional delegation at Washington. A personal representative of our committee also went to Washington to urge the department to give favorable consideration to the requirements of California."

The local efforts of Capt. Friss, the members of the Chamber of Commerce Harbor Committee and other interested persons had much to do with the decision to send Col. Lockwood and Lieut.-Col. Leach to this section. Although unwilling to commit money to an interview, it is understood that Col. Lockwood remarked to one of his companions last evening that the present hearing is regarded as of much consequence by government officials.

It is known that the attention of the whole country is turned just now to the Pacific Coast, because of the future arrival of the magnificent fleet of battleships. And also at this time, it is believed to be a favorable opportunity to advance the claims of the harbor which is destined at no far-distant time, to be in a position to shelter the fleets of commerce from all parts of the world.

SOON TO KNOW HER FATE. Trial of Estelle Corwell, who murdered her lover, to begin today in the Superior Court.

The trial of Mrs. Estelle Corwell, who shot her lover, an electrical engineer named Bennett, will begin in the Superior Court today.

Mrs. Corwell will be obliged to come into court on crutches. A few days ago she sprained an ankle with serious results. One of the women prisoners in the women's ward was ill and Mrs. Corwell was nursing her. Carrying a tray across the living-room of the women's department, she slipped on a rug and fell heavily to the floor. She has suffered severely ever since.

Mrs. Corwell has been in jail for five months, and has borne her imprisonment with quiet philosophy. Most of the time she has had charge of the jail linen. Her life has been, on the whole, a peaceful one.

Mrs. Sheehy, the matron, is one of the gentlest little women in the world, and is very kind to all the unfortunate women who are locked up.

Mrs. Corwell has had a little room of her own, but has dined with all the other prisoners at the general table. The company is certainly mixed. Among her dinner companions every day have been Ruby Castleman, the girl forger; Anna Starr, the old woman with the fabled temper, who tried to kill her husband at Pasadena, and several other unfortunate girls who have gone astray.

To please the matron, they say grace every day at dinner, and the talk would do credit to a ladies' sewing society for refinement.

Mrs. Corwell has been a very silent woman, but a very kind and gentle one.

MINES AND MINING. LOCAL CONCERN. L OWNS RAILROAD. NEW PLASTER COMPANY SPENDS LARGE SUM OF MONEY.

Will Develop Gypsum Deposits Near Arden, Nev., of Immense Size. Local Money in Arizona—News of Searchlight—Movements of Mining Men.

A new company, the Arden Plaster Company, financed entirely with Los Angeles money, has recently completed a large plant for the production of gypsum products at Arden, Nev., twelve miles west of Las Vegas. The plant has been said of the company's plans, but the work has been steadily pushed to completion.

The gypsum deposits owned by the company are situated five miles from Arden and, for the purpose of transporting the material to the mill, a fully-equipped railroad has been built and is now being operated by the company. The rolling stock consists of a. engine, purchased from the Quartzette Mining and Milling Company, of Searchlight, and a dozen open automatic dumping cars.

The total amount invested in the venture runs close to the $150,000 mark and the plant is considered one of the most complete of its kind in the United States.

Its capacity is 200 tons a day, and it is equipped with a 300-horsepower Corliss engine, with nippers, rotary crushers, Burr Mills, kettles, separators and mixers.

The deposits owned by the company are very extensive and present an almost inexhaustible supply. The material is a rock gypsum, containing over 90 per cent of plaster material.

The product of the mill will consist of plaster of Paris, molding plaster and dental plaster, all of which are new products for this section of the world and will constitute a new departure in the industrial history of Los Angeles.

Successful freight rates have been secured and it is believed that the scope of the company will be rapidly extended as far north as Vancouver, B. C., and to the Hawaiian Islands.

The capital of the company is $100,000, owned entirely by local stockholders. It is managed by J. J. Pierce, president; I. B. Murphy, vice-president; H. H. Klamroth, secretary, and R. M. Patterson, treasurer. Other stockholders include W. J. Hole and M. J. Monetta, president of the Los Angeles-Nevada Stock Exchange, one of the prominent owners of the Hayes-Monetta lease at Goldfield. The company will maintain its main distributing warehouses and offices in this city.

News of Searchlight. The Blossom Mining Company has cut its lead at a depth of 250 feet in the new vertical working shaft. In the case of the company, the Stars and Stripes were raised and there was great rejoicing. The vein was encountered according to calculations and the company now has 500 feet of stopping ground opened up. The new ore is the same as that found in the old workings and which is now being extracted and milled.

Attachments aggregating $2500 have been filed against the Searchlight Mining and Milling Company. To meet these financial difficulties the company proposes to issue bonds, backed by the property and guaranteed by a Los Angeles trust company. Henry E. Carter, who has been superintendent of the property, has been given a ten-year lease of the mine.

The Quartzette Extension Mining Company, operating property east of the famous Quartzette, has struck float at a depth of 175 feet which is apparently of the same high character as the best that is produced by the original property.

There are strenuous times in sight for the former heads of the defunct Searchlight Bank and Trust Company. It is practically assured that B. Macdonald will be appointed receiver and under his direction a sweeping investigation will be made of the seemingly questionable handling of the deposits.

The three men arrested for blowing open the big safe in the Brown-Gosney store were given a preliminary hearing Wednesday of this week and bound over to appear before the grand jury. Government officials are confident that they can connect the trio with the Las Vegas postoffice robbery.

More Local Mining Money. The Alta Central Copper Company, operating in Pinal county, Ariz., is another Los Angeles concern.

With local money, which appears to be meeting with success in the copper fields of the territory. The company's property joins the Oklahoma group, now being opened up by the Rothschilds' interests. Recently an important find of good copper ore was made on the Nantucket claim. From an open cut, thirty-two feet long, ten tons of ore were placed on the dump, showing values of from 7 to 10 per cent copper. In the main shaft, on the Nantucket-shant claim, copper values run from 10 to 50 per cent.

Within a few hundred feet of the Alta Central main workings, the Alta Mining and Smelting Company, also a Los Angeles concern, is pursuing active development work, and has just installed a fifty-horsepower hoist and compressor. The Oklahoma group is also equipped with a modern fifty-horsepower plant. The properties are all in the Mineral Hill district, and reports from all points in the immediate neighborhood are said to be extremely encouraging.

Will Aid Alaska. A meeting of mining men of Alaska, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, British Columbia and the Yukon territory will be held in this city March 23 and 24, under the auspices of the American Mining Congress. A committee of the mining industry of Alaska, with a view of recommendations to the congress for its action.

Movements of Mining Men. E. W. Griffiths of Taylor & Griffiths, brokers of Rhyolite, and heavily interested in that camp and in Lee Echo, is a guest at the Alexandria.

Forest Swears and G. V. Burton, well-known Nevada mining men, will leave for Elko, Nev., today. They have secured a lease on the Candelaria claim of the Vickers syndicate, and will attend to the installation of a new HOTEL CLERK HAS NERVES.

Even Dean of Smiths Register at City Hotel in One Day Without Warning.

An even dozen of Smiths registered at the Hotel King Edward yesterday. Although all of them are from Idaho, four were unacquainted with the other eight. Mr. and Mrs. James Smith and six children are residents of St. Anthony; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith and Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Parker. The clerk was almost rendered speechless when the tribe of Smiths entered the hotel and proceeded to register. James Smith did not enumerate the members of his family, but "bunched" them. "Business is rushing," remarked Manager Tousley with a smile. "Here, you see for yourself—twelve Smiths arrived in one day. If other families do as well, our house will be filled to overflowing."

Gasoline hoist, which has already reached the mill, is a piece of C. E. Thurnby Pelham, formerly representative of Lazard Freres of Paris, France, but now interested in a lease on the Combination in Goldfield, in the city, after a stay of seven months in Nevada. Six or seven years ago he was connected with the Republic Mining Company of Republic, Wash., under the management of Maj. Leckie.

R. J. Riley, one of Goldfield's pioneers and successful miners, is a guest in the city enjoying the delights of Arcadia. He originally owned the first lease on Florence ground, and after working for eight months, struck fabulous values. In the remaining months of the year during which his lease ran, he was estimated to have made as much more. After cashing his profits, Mr. Riley quit mining entirely, and is now living in Oakland.

STEP FORWARD. TROLLEYLESS IS THIS SYSTEM.

NEW THIRD RAIL INVENTION MAY BE ADOPTED HERE.

Element of Danger Eliminated, Apparently—Successful Test on Specialty Prepared Track Witnessed by Representatives of Local Transportation Companies.

A new third-rail system for propelling electric cars was tested on a specially prepared track at Beverly Hills, yesterday, and proved a success. The experiment was witnessed by representatives of Los Angeles transportation companies and may be adopted here. Experts say that a revolution in electric traffic is at hand.

There was an anxious moment when the spectators saw the inventor, Timothy Mahoney of this city, board the coach loaned for the occasion by the Los Angeles-Pacific Company, and turn the controller. The car answered readily and presently started at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour. It could have been made to go twice as fast, the inventor said.

W. W. Fiddington, Mr. Light and Attorney Robert McCall were the guests of Mr. Mahoney on the initial trip. Mr. Light is associated with the inventor in the effort to introduce the system in the cities of the Pacific Coast.

Two parallel rails between the tracks supply the current. At intervals of about half the length of a car there is a "cut-off," or break in the rail, which takes the current into a box at the side of the track and leaves the rails over which the coach has just passed "dead." In this way the element of danger, which would exist if the inner rails remained charged, is completely removed. To demonstrate that there is no possibility of the current jumping across the break in the rails water was poured into the space and the rail was then touched with a piece of steel wire, but there was no evidence of current being piled along the break as would be the case with the "juice."

Two shoes which extend from beneath the car "pick up" the electricity. The efforts of Mahoney have been directed toward the elimination of all danger from the power rails. His system he asserts can be used on city streets with perfect safety.

CONVICTION BY CLERK
(Cal.) Jan. 11.—(To the Editor.)—The editorial in the Times of the 11th inst. regarding the conviction of a clerk by a jury, is a very interesting one. It is a case of a clerk who had been convicted of a crime, and the jury had found him guilty. The editorial says that the jury was composed of men who were not familiar with the law, and that they were misled by the evidence presented to them. It is a case that shows the importance of a good jury, and the need for a fair trial.

THINGS OVER THE SEA
It is rightly regarded as one of the most important of the world's problems, and the one that is most likely to lead to a general war. It is the question of the rights of the sea, and the rights of the nations that are on the sea. It is a question that has been discussed for many years, and it is a question that is still being discussed today. It is a question that is of great importance to all nations, and it is a question that is of great importance to all people.

THE FRENCH
The French are a very interesting people, and they are a very important nation. They are a people who are very proud of their history, and they are a people who are very proud of their culture. They are a people who are very proud of their language, and they are a people who are very proud of their art. They are a people who are very proud of their science, and they are a people who are very proud of their industry.

Carmen Learning to Shoot.
More than a hundred conductors and motormen of the Los Angeles Railway lines spent yesterday afternoon on the hills near Hollywood practicing pistol shooting. Most of the railway men have gone of the latest pattern, and several are crack shots. Their determination is to perfect themselves in the use of firearms in order to be ready for any emergency like that in which Conductor Greer of the Los Angeles-Hollywood line proved his skill with a revolver.

Want Street Improved.
Residents of Moneta avenue are preparing a petition to the Council asking that the work of widening and leveling South Main street, from Jefferson to Portland streets, be begun at once. Delay has followed delay, and the short stretch of street connecting Main street with Moneta avenue has not been improved. The section in question has already been paved, but the tracks of the Moneta-avenue car line have been raised eighteen inches above the present grade of the street pavement.

The Bee's Wisdom.

We marvel at what we call the wisdom of the hive bee, yet there is one thing she never learns from experience, writes John Burroughs in the Atlantic, and that is that she is storing up honey for the use of man. She could not learn this, because such knowledge is not necessary to her own well-being. Neither does she ever know when she has enough to carry her through the winter. This knowledge, again, is not necessary to her own well-being. Neither does she ever know when she has enough to carry her through the winter. This knowledge, again, is not necessary to her own well-being.
